

Marie-Christine Ducholet

Head of Societe Generale retail banking in France*

Marie-Christine Ducholet joined Societe Generale in 1985. From 1990 to 2001, she held different commercial functions within Structured Finance, in Real Estate and Commodities. Joining the Strategic Acquisition and Finance department of the Corporate and Investment Bank in 2001 in charge of a portfolio of French and Spanish clients, she was subsequently given responsibility for all European activities. In 2008, she was appointed co-Head of Strategic Acquisition and Finance worldwide. In 2011 she joined the Management team of Societe Generale Equipment Finance and was appointed Chief Executive Officer in October 2011. In 2017, Marie-Christine Ducholet was appointed Head of Clients for Retail Banking activities in France and became Head of Societe Generale retail banking in France in June 2019.

Marie-Christine Ducholet is a graduate of HEC.

Meet the Group Management Committee

Follow Marie-Christine Ducholet on Linkedin

