

Patrick Folléa

Head of Societe Generale Private Banking, Supervisor of Lyxor*

Head of the Wealth and Asset Management Business Unit*

Patrick Folléa was appointed Head of the Wealth and Asset Management Business Unit in February 2019.

Patrick Folléa joined BNP in 1984 as an economist before joining the Internal Audit Department in 1990. He then became Manager of Private Banking in Hong Kong and Managing Director of BNP Asset Management in Asia. He returned to Private Banking in 2000 as regional manager in charge of development. From 2003, he was in charge of BNP Paribas Private Bank in Italy and in 2007 joined Societe Generale group as Deputy CEO of Societe Generale Private Banking France, becoming CEO in 2009. In 2012, in addition to his existing responsibilities, he was appointed Deputy Head of Societe Generale Private Banking. He was appointed Head of Societe Generale Private Banking and supervisor of Lyxor in 2019.

Patrick Folléa has a degree in Private International Law and Political Sociology from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Bordeaux and a Doctorate in International Finance from the University of Paris, Dauphine.

Meet the Group Management Committee

Follow Patrick Folléa on LinkedIn

