

Philippe Amestoy

Deputy Head of International Retail Banking for Africa, the Mediterranean Basin & Overseas

Philippe Amestoy began his career with Arthur Andersen before joining Societe Generale's inspection in 1987. In 1998, he assumed responsibility for the vice presidency of Societe Generale's Argentinian subsidiary, before being appointed, in 2002, Director General of the International Bank Union, in Tunisia, when it was privatized and acquired by Societe Generale. In 2007, he was promoted General Delegate of the Grand Sud-Ouest region within Societe Generale's French network. From 2011 to 2015, he was Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Crédit du Nord, particularly in charge of marketing and business issues. In 2015, he was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Crédit du Nord Group and Director of Operations and Transformation for the French network in 2017. In 2019, he was appointed Director of the Societe Generale Retail Banking Network in France. Philippe Amestoy was appointed Deputy Head of International Retail Banking for Africa, the Mediterranean Basin & Overseas in July 2021.

Philippe Amestoy is a graduate from IEP in Paris and the University Paris-Dauphine.

Meet the Group Management Committee

