

Philippe Aymerich

Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Philippe Aymerich is Deputy Chief Executive Officer, member of the Group General Management team and of the Group Executive Committee, that has been appointed 24 May 2023.

Philippe Aymerich joined Societe Generale's General Inspection Division in 1987, where he carried out various audit and advisory assignments before being appointed Chief Inspector in 1994.

In 1997, he joined Societe Generale Corporate & Investment Banking as Deputy Managing Director of SG Spain in Madrid. In 1999, Philippe became Deputy Chief Operating Officer, then, in 2000, Chief Operating Officer for the Americas region of Societe Generale Corporate & Investment Banking. In 2004, he was appointed Head of the of the Automotive, Chemicals & General Industries Group in the Corporate & Institutions Division.

In December 2006, he was appointed Deputy Chief Risk Officer for Societe Generale group. He was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Crédit du Nord in January 2012.

Philippe was previously Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Societe Generale from May 2018, supervising French Retail Banking activities and International Retail Banking activities.

Philippe Aymerich is a graduate of France's École des hautes études commerciales (HEC).

Other mandates held in non-French listed companies

Member of the Board of Directors: EPI - European Payment Initiative (permanent representative of Societe Generale since May 2023).

